Thirty seven (37) of the 118 pigs listed on this report were used in a collaborative project with Arizona Heart Institute Foundation. After consulting with Dr. Wendy Koch of the USDA Denver office, it was decided that because the pigs were purchased by and housed at Arizona State University, the pigs would be included under the ASU USDA Annual Report. A copy of Dr. Koch's fax is attached. Therefore, the Arizona Heart Institute Foundation is reporting no animal use. Their USDA form is included in this packet.

IACUC-approved exceptions to regulations and standards.

Two exceptions to regulations were approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The first exception is the schedule for providing food to cats. As part of three IACUC-approved protocols that involve behavioral experiments, the provision of food to cats is restricted to one session each day in the laboratory. Food is provided as a positive reinforcement to obtain the behavior under study. At the end of each session, the animals are allowed to eat to satiation. Eight animals have been used in these protocols during the current reporting period.

The second exception is the schedule for providing water to rhesus monkeys. As part of an IACUC-approved protocol that involves behavioral experiments, the provision of water to rhesus monkeys is restricted to one session each day in the laboratory. Water is provided as a positive reinforcement to obtain the behavior under study. At the end of each session, the animals are allowed to drink to satiation. One animal has been used in this protocol during the current reporting period.
